

Lu Cuadra is a choreographer and artist based out of NYC. He has trained under some of New York and California's most well known and accredited dance teachers. He is a proud member of the Kelly Peter Dance Company and has trained, performed and toured with them since the beginning of 2010.

Lu has worked and choreographed pieces for companies, studios, numerous schools and universities nationwide. His choreography is a fusion of all his favorite things from each style and places he's studied. Always dancing with a purpose and focused on the craft.